LYCURGUS ON THE TURKISH SITUATION

George Lycurgus, recently returned from the scene of action in Asia Minor, has strong sympathies in favor of the Turks in the present situation. The opinion should be unbiased as the Turks and Greeks are not usually agreed.

"The Bulgarians are entirely to blame," says the genial restaurateur. "In Salonica, where I have been, the Bulgarians living in the city as foreign residents, threw a bomb through the bank window. The punishment of the outrage brought rebellion and insurrection and the Bulgarians expected the powers to sympathize with them."

"It is much the same situation as if we Greeks of Honolulu should throw a bomb into the First National Bank and then revolt and expect sympathy for our action. No sir, the Bulgarians have themselves to blame."

"When the Anglo-Saxon papers defended Turkey the Bulgarians accused the Turks of having bought the press as if the London Times, New York Journal or big German papers could be bribed. I tell you the Turks are not to be blamed in the matter."

NEW TEACHERS FOR EPISCOPAL SCHOOL

Mr. Fitz is a man of large culture and experience and his coming will give an impetus to the work at Iolani school. Both these teachers were born in New York state and having travelled extensively have had exceptional advantages and are great additions to the schools. Iolani school is now occupying the old Puna-hou preparatory buildings. Both schools will open Sept. 7 with a full complement of teachers.

CHARGED WITH FIRE CLAIM THEFT

W. F. Reynolds was arrested yesterday morning on a warrant charging him with the embezzlement of a fire claim. Quan You, a Chinese, makes the charges. He alleges that Reynolds, "acting as agent for complainant did, on or about the 25th day of August, 1903, in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, collect and receive from Hon. Geo. R. Carter a warrant for money, to wit, a fire claim in the sum of forty-one and ten-hundredths dollars, which said warrant was paid to said W. F. Reynolds, and he, the said W. F. Reynolds, received said money as the agent of your complainant but refuses to pay the same to your complainant, and has fraudulently converted same to his own use and benefit."

Reynolds was released in the afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth.

The Half Not Told.

The Tourist Bureau, with Mr. E. M. Boyd at its head, has been formed, and various expedients have been adopted to induce tourists to come and spend their money in our beautiful land. The scenery and hospitality, the extent of accommodations, the facilities for travel are all extolled to the highest, but as yet no mention has been made of the religious privileges which are available to the devout who do not forget the Author and Giver of all good things. No mention has been made of the safety of life and property, the good civic and moral order which prevails all over the Islands.—Anglican Church Chronicle.

Attorney-General Andrews has rendered an opinion to the effect that Capt. Begger cannot cut the salaries of the two women vocalists in the band. The appropriation is $50 a month for each. ## THESE FAKE DISPATCHES.

The Turk is as noted for his treachery as have become the Balkan dispatches, with which the world has recently been supplied, for their inaccuracy. Today we hear that Adrianople is burning while tomorrow comes the startling information that Ferid Pasha has carried the whole of Bulgaria off and hidden it in a dark corner. Then the man at the other end of the wire makes it hot, to the effect that eighty-five towns have been razed and the inhabitants inhumanly put to death. Next, all former "news" is called off and a new report hatched to keep the world guessing. The only authentic dispatch yet received which has any reasonable foundation on fact and which needs no alibi is, that: "Ibrahim Pasha is marching on the insurgents at the head of 100,000 Douglas Patent Closets."
